SUBJECT: Three Day International Conference Titled "Connect 360: Sustainability and Innovation Incorporating Indian Knowledge System" in collaboration with the Department of Design and Innovation, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

The School of Journalism and Mass Communication is pleased to announce and cordially invite all faculty members, students, scholars, and stakeholders to a prestigious Three-Day International Conference titled "Connect 360: Sustainability and Innovation Incorporating Indian Knowledge System", organized in collaboration with the Department of Design and Innovation, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi. The conference will be held from 15th April to 17th April 2025, starting at 09:00 AM onwards each day.

This interdisciplinary event aims to foster meaningful dialogue and exchange of ideas on how traditional Indian knowledge systems can be harmoniously integrated with modern concepts of sustainability and innovation. Eminent speakers, researchers, practitioners, and academicians from across the globe will come together to share their insights, research findings, and innovative approaches to address pressing global challenges through a uniquely Indian perspective.

The conference will also feature panel discussions, keynote addresses, workshops, and paper presentations, providing a vibrant platform for learning, collaboration, and networking. All are encouraged to participate actively and make the most of this enriching academic experience.

We look forward to your enthusiastic participation!
